BARRINGER HIGH SCHOOL

Newark, New Jersey

Dedication

The Class of January 1946 humbly dedicates this yearbook to the Students of Barringer who, by their unswerving loyalty, have kept alive the many fine traditions of our school. This fine spirit has won for America the greatest battle in the history of mankind and it will play an important role in helping to insure a lasting peace.

FACULTY

MR. ROGER B. SAYLOR
Acting Principal

WE wish to express our gratitude to both of our principals for the interest and friendship they have shown us. Their leadership was a true inspiration to us at all times and because of this influence we leave the halls of Barringer with a faith in the future.

Class of January 1946

MR. MICHAEL R. MCGREAL
Assistant Sup't in Charge of High Schools

MISS ELSA DISBROW
Vice Principal

MISS FANNY BELL
MRS. JOANNA DI MARIA

TO you Miss Disbrow, and the "office" we wish to express our gratitude for the countless services and courtesies you have extended to us.

Class of January 1946

MISS ALICE M. SCHNEIDER

Our Advisers

"Thanks for the Memory" of being kind and helpful in many different ways,
Our two best friends in school, throughout our four year stay,
We thank you so much.

MR. VICTOR SALERNO

Home Room Teachers

MISS HELEN TUNSTEAD

MRS. VALENTINE CIPOLLETTI

TO our homeroom teachers we say "many thanks" for your patient understanding and your quiet tolerance. You will be long remembered for your untiring devotion to student welfare and your sincere interest in student activities.

In Memorium

FOR more than ten years, Miss Lura Briggs was associated with the English department of Barringer High School and during that time she labored with a singleness of purpose from which she never permitted herself to deviate. Her sincere efforts to improve the reading ability of her students stand out as a symbol of true teaching. Her influence in Barringer will be missed.

Mrs. Jeanette Fort's kind and gentle manner will be long remembered by the students with whom she came in contact. In her own quiet way she made herself felt as a staunch and interested supporter of Barringer and all of its activities.

DRAWN IN THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY
COUNTY OF ESSEX CITY OF NEWARK

WE, the Class of January 1946, being of reasonably sound mind and body do bequeath and entrust these gifts, treasures and legacies to the following peoples, persons, and individuals:

1. Mr. Dangler—A pair of Adler elevator shoes.
2. Mr. Pritchard—Two tickets to the Empire Theatre. (Hubba-Hubba)
3. Mr. Hartman—A washing machine and a pressure cooker.
4. Miss Walston—A recording of herself reading English poetry.
5. Miss Beebe—A lifetime subscription to the New York Daily News.
(Oh bosh!)
6. Mr. Snavelly—A Vicks inhalator.
7. Mr. Finelli—One complete Charles Atlas course.
8. Miss Weiss—A gavel to save her pencils.
9. Mr. Hagaman—A test tube of water to pour on 30 cc of concentrated sulfuric acid.
10. Mr. Lippe—A new super de luxe sailboat.
11. Mr. Vogel—An even flashier tie.
12. Miss Gray—A new and original radio script.
13. Mr. Zweibel—An autographed picture of Henry Wallace.
14. Mr. Allen—A football team that can beat Belleville.
15. Mr. Slavin—A nineteen year old student. (Female)
16. Mrs. Carleu—A class of kindergarten children.
17. Mr. Haulenbeek—A book about the birds and the bees.
18. Mr. Salerno—A pair of 4 foot stilts.
19. Mrs. Frey—An interpreter.
20. The Freshmen—A map and compass for each student.
21. Athenaeum Staff—Each and every one of the headaches that the present staff has had.
22. National Honor Society—Higher standards.
23. All students of Barringer—Homework 60 minutes per subject per day.
24. All our former teachers—The first 50 places on the waiting list of "the home for bodily rest and mental repose."

SPLIT ATOM CAUSES HUGE EXPLOSION

Washington, D. C.—While working in his lab today, Lou Bongo, world famous chemist, used the wrong gyp slip and therefore accidentally split an atom. The explosion was so great that Chemist Bongo was thrown clear across the room. Julia Riviezzo and Angela Corbo, his devoted and obedient secretaries rushed to him and administered first aid. Nurse Gloria Molinari is now attending him, while Powers Models Elaine Kaplan, Helen Adam, Dolores McGlone, and Norma Losco hold his hand and rub his forehead.

NEW REST HOME OPENS SOON

West Orange—Miss Jetta Petoia, a noted psychiatrist and a graduate of Barringer High School, will open her new rest home Friday. It is situated on Eagle Rock, one of her favorite spots. Due to the able salesmanship of Joe Catania and backing of Carmen Castellano, guests for the opening are Marie Casale, Geraldine Restaino, Katherine Ruggiero, Joe Iellimo, and Anthony Giansanti.

COURT THEATRE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Newark—Elena Manfredi, after patronizing the Court for so many years, has finally become manager of this famous theatre. For the gala opening night, they are featuring, by popular request, Joe "Boing" Aulisi in his well known portrayal of "The Return of the Ape Man". You'll swoon girls when you hear his latest line—"Scrape it off!" Florence Beltram, Dolores Monetti, Ann Ucci, and Elena Stoppioni the original "Eye Full" girls under the able supervision (Wolf! Wolf!) of Mike D'Antuono, will present their new act "We're Only Teasing!" Hubba! Hubba!

Gerald Morgan 3rd Opens Fourth Candy and Nut Factory

Newark—Gerald Morgan 3rd, who started out as a mechanic tightening nuts in a peanut brittle factory, has now established his fourth plant in this vicinity. Paul Keubler is his executive manager and Grace Mazzarini is in charge of the nuts.

Auto Business Celebrates Fifth Anniversary

Detroit—Frank D'Allegro and Lou Contaldi have been a great success in their auto business and they're still the biggest concern selling the latest 1932 Fords. A great deal of credit ought to be given to those top-notch mechanics, David Kaminsky, Mike Ventola, Percy Hunter and Michel Forcella for holding cars together; that's really some job!

CRIMINALS CREATE NATION-WIDE PANIC

Trenton—It has just been reported that Jerry "Come on Seven-Eleven" Panico, Tom "Ace" Cantillo, Larry Chiappa, "The Blade", and Matty "The Coop" Russomanno have flown the coop where they were serving a sentence for stealing jellybeans. They are reported to be heading for the border in a clipper ship. Ann Casarola, Dottie Tamburello and Annabelle Baruch, three air hostesses, are being held as hostages while Julius Vannarelli is being forced to pilot the plane! State troopers Pat Vernaccia, Serene Nolan and Tom Scelfo hope to catch them at the border while Oliver Myers of the FBI is shooting at the plane with his new B-B gun.

Jack Luland's Korn Kobbler's Appearing At the Adams

Newark—Jack Luland and his Korn Kobbler's opened today at the Adams and were a terrific hit. Jack and Melvin Ehrich played a trumpet duet and the joint was really jumping. (In fact, some people jumped clear out of the place.) They played an original piece entitled "Are You Living Old Man" or "Do You Need Vitamins". Donald Nathan played "I'm Only Foolin'" (he must have been) on his French Corn—oops!—Horn, while Lou Rossi accompanied him. The Hep Cats, Rosalie Webb, Vivian Mackey, Roberta Hulin, Emma Slaughter, and Florence Ware were also featured.

Smart Set . . .

Newark—John Carrano, noted man about town, otherwise known as Dashing Don Juan, has just divorced Phyllis Smith, tantalizing strip teaser, currently appearing at the Empire Burlesque. (Swell Show Folks). James Comerici is the new manager there. I wonder!

Miriam Mintz just visited Paris and was voted the world's best dressed woman so Muriel Ormay and Vivian Friedberg threw a party for her. Among the socialites there were Betty Perugino, Miss America of 1954, accompanied by her ever faithful friends Rita Farese and Sadie Gangemi; Chuck Kimbel, ace backfield man of the N. Y. Giants, and Fiori Caruso and Danny Stango, the new millionaires from Park Ave. who have all the girls swooning. They have already retired for life and are leaving for Florida soon. Miss Anne Santaniello played the "Polannaise" while Pierre Adubato, her famed piano teacher looked on with approval. Ahem!

The Theresa Bucca wedding will be held next month. Andy Napolitano will be the best man and Gene Cortese will be maid of honor. Reverend Joseph Cinderella will perform the ceremony. Music for the ceremony will be provided by Filamena Chiarella, famous concert artist.

* * *

Adelaide O'Kane and Ruth Buchman are reported to be watching the tree cutters for the past week. What's up girls? And we don't mean in the tree?

* * *

Andy Maraviglia, illustrator and cartoonist has just gained more fame by recently creating a sensation with his new and daring "Marvel Girl"! All we can say is "Yeow"!

Big Changes At Dance Hall

Jersey City—Roland Culotta, owner of the Diamond Jubilee Dance Hall, has chosen Gloria Caruso, Vivian Bowles, Lida Bock, Ruth Henry, Ruth Murray and Loretta Mason as the new "ten cent a dance" hostesses. Ann Mari is still cashier but John Silva and Vito Palaganno are the new custodians. Big deal, boys! The place has also been redecorated by Mat Schirm with the assistance of David Conover and it certainly looks swell. It has been heard via the grapevine that Roland has a personal interest in Olympia Russomanno.

Dear Diary

We spent an exciting day doing some last minute practicing shopping and keeping busy. Now the night of all nights was here. The night we waited for long years for. How different we all look in white and blue gowns. The auditorium is crowded with beaming mamas and papas watching breathlessly as we march proudly to our seats. Then, after the last speech and round of applause there is a sudden stampede in the general direction of the gym. Everyone follows the leader path to Baringer Goodbye. Goodbye to Baringer and all the good times we had, the homework, Teachers and report cards. Bye now.

Dear Diary

Oct. 17, 1945

The rings came at long last. What a mad rush to Mr. Salerno's office. All Senior feet were directed toward that little room from which was heard a chorus of "ohs and ahs". Every one was pleased. And why shouldn't we be? Have you seen them? Why the Seniors said "Hello" with a flourish of the hand beneath every one now for a whole week straight - did they miss you?

Sept 1945

Dear Diary

We were back again and on our last stretch home. We've had a swell summer, full of fun and surprises. We came back to a new Baringer, a Baringer no longer shadowed by the finger of war. Then too came the thrilling news of Mr. McCreals appointment to the office of Assistant Supt of Schools. AND the equally grand feeling that the supervision of B.H.S. was put into the capable hands of kind and knowing Mr. Saylor.

Dear Diary

Sept 29 1945

We went optimistically to the Belleville game and came home with heads bowed. The first game of the season and we were defeated.

But nothing can keep our Baringer spirit down - not even rain. And oh how it poured! Amid torrents of "that there wet stuff" we watched and cheered our Big Blue, and Central too, as both teams made a gallant play on the slippery field. What a wet game but oh what a solid score - 12-0

February 1945

Dear Diary

Here we are at last... Seniors of B.H.S. How will miss rushing to math classes, copying (in less than a minute) experiments, and wishing there was only an English Language.

We have high hopes for this last year and we're brimming over with the spirit that will make it the best of the "bestest".

June 1945

Dear Diary

What a night! The moon beamed down upon us and the stars seemed to dance in and out among its silvery beams. The sweet scent of flowers floated breathtakingly on the soft summer breeze, while we swayed to the dreamy music of Harry James. The girls were all so sweet and lovely in their gowns, and the boys looked like Van Johnsons and Tyrone Powers in their "Tux". The open terrace of the Country Club overlooking the lake was the perfect setting for the best Senior Prom ever given. Do you remember? We Don't!!!

Dear Diary

May 1945

After a hectic afternoon growing an assortment of daisies and making the girls gym a colorful lot of gaiety we arrived at the dance amid torrents of rain. The setting was perfect.
Soft music drifted into the night while girls in fields and lanes danced happily about in the arms of their Prince Charming.

Thanksgiving proved to be a joyous holiday, starting off with a bang in the girls gym.
Of course if you all went to the dance you know what a howling success the Turkey Tussle was.
By the way, did you notice
those solid decorations?

Everyone gathered at Ashland Stadium was bubbling over with enthusiasm and excitement as the band marched on the field, and started the game. We cheered both teams on till the end, with the cheerleaders giving with the 'Whip! Whip! The Big Blue, holding City Champ title and the Panthers fought hard ending the game with a final score of --.

Dear Diary

May 19, 1945

The lights were low, the curtains slowly parted and the sweet strains of the orchestra filled the hushed auditorium. This was the delightful setting for the Spring Concert. Everyone who participated in its making did a bang-up job.
To top off the evening the Blue Jackets gave out with some solid jive and a few top tunes, which were super.

Charles Kimbel

Chuck played football for Barringer during the '43, '44 season but because of injury during practice did not earn his letter until '45. He made the first team in spite of a strong array of backfield talent.

Michael D'Antuono

Mike joined the cheering squad in '44 and rose to captaincy the following season. Never was there a dull moment with Mike yelling his loudest at pep assemblies and football games.

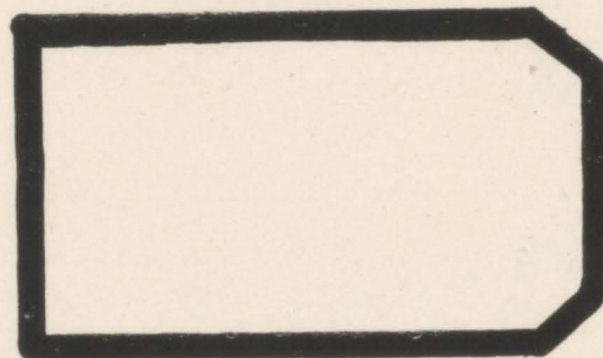

Joseph Aulise

Joe "Boing" won his major in fencing in '43 and tried out for football for the first time in '45. He proved his ability early in the season and soon made the first team. Thus he was able to earn his major letter in one season.

Peter Adubato

Pete acted as co-captain of freshmen football, but when an injury sidelined him he took over as Assistant Manager in '44. For a job well done he earned his Major B.

Louis Bongo

Lou, that roving, rugged end, earned his first letter in '44 when he played tackle. During the 1945 season he was switched over to end in order to strengthen a weak side of the line. In this position, his remarkable playing earned for him the title of "All City End".

Amato Russomanno

Matty played a bang up game as center with such success that he was awarded a place on the first team All-City football selections. Also he earned a major letter by playing on the Big Blue baseball squad.

Roland Culotta

Roland was Assistant Manager of the Big Blue Cross Country squad in '43. He then became Head Manager in '44, for which he received his Major B. He did a fine job as Manager of that Championship squad in '44, winner of the City Meet.
